

University of Phayao Announcement

Subject: Will in good faith for administration according to good governance

The University of Phayao is striving to be an organization of good governance and transparency according to the mechanism of accountability, virtue evaluation and transparency for the administration of government agencies. Therefore, the University of Phayao's administrators hereby announce the will in good faith for administration according to good governance. The University of Phayao will carry out its mission with fairness, honesty, transparency, and effectiveness. The university's administrative affairs must conform to the standards of good governance, keep up with the dynamics of changes, and be open to the public. The public will be able to retrieve information regarding the university's administration and the university's accomplished missions will be accountable to the public as well. The University of Phayao will be responsible for any consequences affecting the public in any respects. All forms of corruption must be prevented by the university and organizational culture must be cooperatively created as a strict guideline.

Announced on 19 December 2017.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "M. Sanguansermisri".

Professor Mondhon Sanguansermisri, Ph.D.

President, University of Phayao